INDEX

papal anger, 224-226 ; to Alessa from the Rocca, 227 ; goes to Florence as papal envoy, 229 ; relations with the Pane Guelfa, 230,231; letter to Pedro de Luna, 234; secures the observance of the interdict, 235 ; is involved in the Guelf politics, 236 ; the attempt upon her life, 239-242 ; first letter to Urban VI, 243-245 ; announces the peace, 246; her farewell to the Florentines, 249-231; hopes in Pedro de Luna, 256, apologizes for Fra Bartolommeo, 271 , appeals for unity to Pedro de Luna, 281; denounces the schismatical cardinals, 281, 282 ; letter to the Count of Fondi, 282, 283 ; her agony at the Schism, 284, 285 ; various letters of 1378, 285-287 ; is summoned to Rome, 287, 288 ; her reception by Urban, 288, 289; wishes to convert Queen Giovanna, 290, 291 ; parts with Raimondo, 292 ; her disappointment with him, 293 ; summons the " servants of God," 294-296 ; letter to Antonio da Nizza, 296-298 ; her life in Rome, 298, 299; letters to Stefano and Pietro di Giovanni Ventura, 300-303 ; to the three Italian cardinals, 304-306 ; alleged share in the capitulation of Sant' Angelo, 309 ; four letters of May 6, 1379, 309-312 ; on the supposed conversion of the Queen, 313, 314 n.; to Urban at Whitsuntide, 314, 315; letter to Raimondo at Genoa, 318-320; to the governments of Siena, Florence, and Perugia, 321-323, 324 «.; to Louis of Hungary and Charles of Durazzo, 324, 325; her last appeal to Giovanna, 325 ; her solicitude for Giannozzo Sacchetti, 326; approaching the end, 329; relations with Urban and the Romans, 330-332; herlast illness, 332, 333; her farewell letters to Fra Raimondo, 333-343; her mystical agony, 343,344 ; her testament of love, 344-348, last interview with Fra Bartolommeo, 348, 349; receives Stefano, 349; her death, 349-351 ; in the Minerva, 352 ; her Dialogo, 353, 354; its mysticism, 354-356; the *Trattato della Discretnone*ₜ 356-358 ; the Trattato deW Oraetone, 358-361 ; the Trattato delle Lagrtme, 361, 362; Trattato della Dtvtna Provvtdenza, 362-365 j Trattato del? Obbedtenza, 365-367; her universal prayer, 367-370; comparison with Dante, 356, 366,

367 ; her learning to write, 370, 3; her method of dictation, 372, 3; characteristics of her letters, 373-3' comparison with Petrarcaj 376, 3; her philosophy of love, 377, 378 ; symbolism of blood, 378, 379; le on the execution of Niccolo di To! 379-381 ; on disordered love andl of self, 381, 382 ; on servile fear, 3! on the cell of self-knowledge, 383 ; Orattont, 383-385 ; her charge to disciples, 386, 387, 390-394 5 Stefai cult of her memory, 393,399, 405 ; value of her work, 405, 406; published letter to Bartolommeo Smeduccio, 407-411; to two unnar disciples, 411-412, 412-413; to Signona of Florence, 413-416; Francesco di Pippmo, 416, 417; Bartolo Usimbardi and Franceso Pippino, 417,418; to Piero Canigi 418-421 ; to the Prioress and n of Santa Agnese, 421, 422

Catherine of Sweden, St. (Kata. Ulfsdotter), 44,45, 105 ; her testim concerning the Schism, 266 refuses to undertake Urban's mis to Naples, 290

Celle (dalle), Giovanni, his life letters, 136, 137, 173, 174, 175 5 j Catherine's fellowship 175; 178,: summoned to Rome, 294 ; Cathen letter to him, 295, 296; incline Joachism, 299,300; letter to Bardu Camgiani, 396; on Francescc Pippmo, 391

Cenci, Giovanni, his part in the elec of Urban VI, 261, 262, 267 ; obt capitulation of Sant' Angelo, Catherine's appeal on his behalf, 310; leads the Roman People, as Senator pays funeral honoui the Saint, 352

Cenni, Matteo, rector of the Mi cordia, 98, 122, 386, 392 n.

Ceva (di), Jacopo, 163, 291, 293

Charles IV, Roman Emperor, 2; first Italian enterprise, 37 Birgitta's hopes in him, 46; second Italian journey, 62, 66, his humiliation at Siena, 68, threatens the Florentines, 164 191 ; adheres to Urban VI, 280

—— V, King of France, 63 ; Cathei first letter to Turn, 186; adher< Clement VII, 277-279 ; second 1 of Catherine to him, 311, 312 ; pressure upon the University,